Motion to approve minutes from the previous meeting held in Village Hall on March 28, 2022 was put forth by Kevin and seconded by Emily.

- Need to research criteria for obtaining century home plaques.
 - Depending on the cost, the Commission may be able to sponsor all or a portion of the cost.

- Responses from the first round of letters:
 - 4531 Franklin Street (built in 1910) – Lucy (Mary Lou) Kelley
 - House has vinyl siding and other improvements have already been made which makes it ineligible for the national registry. Further research is to come for village registration.
 - Clark went to the Recorder's Office to research the home's previous owners.
 - Leslie Hoffmaster – 10836 Main Street
 - Edie Benner
 - Robert Gaglione

- Another round of letters to be sent out the first week of May.
- Outreach initiatives
 - Mantua Historical Society Meeting
 - May 16th 6-8 PM
 - Mantua Center Town Hall
 - Art on the Hill
 - July 9th
 - The Potato Festival
 - September 9, 10, and 11th.

 - Bob Kroeger's Painting and Auction
 - September 15th 10-4
 - Mantua Township Civic Center
 - Dottie invited the Commission to set up a table along with other local historical societies.
