OLD BUSINESS:

- ❖ Review overtime report and appropriation status report.
- ❖ We have one Officer in Training, Michael Jones; and one new Officer to Hire, Jeremy Seabolt.
- ❖ No major issues at the Festival; several vehicles broken into Saturday night. Some of the items were recovered.
- ❖ Evaluation of Chief—next month.
- ❖ Chief Thanks the Committee for their support with the wage ordinance.
- ❖ John Vechery is moving forward on the Orchard Street house abandonment.
- ❖ Pumpkin Roll and Trick or Treat security is being worked on at this time. Road closing assistance has been sent to the Service Dept.
- ❖ We are 159 cases up from last year at this time; 657 this year, 498 last year; total of 728 for all year.
- ❖ Event Form...changes: Leash law for dogs; skate boards, skates need to be added. Event to be back in the same condition within 3 days?; all depends on where the event is being held. Roads need to be open within hours.

NEW BUSINESS:

- ❖ Crestwood School is going to the ALICE program. The Police Dept. supports this program and feels that this is a great direction; Crestwood is going to protect our kids. PCSO supports this program. Alert Lockdown Inform Counter Evacuation.
- ❖ Letter dated August 31, 2011 from Aaron Snopak reference inspection of properties for safety concerns, fire alarms, maintenance codes, etc. will be discussed at the October meeting. Inspections to be handled by an Official, several areas we don't have. Police would be on a voluntary basis if people want a safety check. Chief to review this with the FD and possibly have one of the FD members come to the next meeting to discuss this.
